

F.I.S.H. 2010

Fishing Industry Services Handbook

F.I.S.H. - A yearbook and diary in its seventh year from the people who bring you The Irish Skipper containing a comprehensive directory for the catching and processing sectors of the fishing industry in Ireland.

F.I.S.H. is an independent publication that aims to provide all those who work in the Irish fishing industry with a much-needed service, featuring the same zeal for accuracy and attention to detail that characterises every issue of The Irish Skipper.

A quality hardback A5- sized book in colour and black & white, F.I.S.H. will include:

- Day by day calendar and diary
- Handy double page year planner
- Tidal prediction charts for the year 2010
- General information on the Irish fishing industry
- Listings of contact information for all fishery harbours and ports in Ireland
- Directory of service providers for the catching and processing sector
